TEMPLETON
ROBINSON

PRICE: OFFERS OVER £1,700,000

Rarely do we find a period residence which has been so accurately restored using traditional fixtures and fittings, yet has modern systems seamlessly incorporated such as underfloor heating, beam vacuum system, double glazed sliding sash windows, re roofed with traditional original materials and many other restorative elements.

This most distinguished detached residence built in 1893 occupies a beautifully landscaped garden with a stunning Orangery, slate flooring and brick open fireplace ideal for entertaining outdoors.

Internally the property provides superb accommodation which is tastefully presented and lacking nothing in the quality of the interior fittings including fireplaces, corniced ceilings and ceiling roses. The property was extended and modernised in 2007 and provides a delightful mix of charm and character with modern living spaces. All the city's amenities are close at hand with grammar and primary schools being within walking distance, whilst the designer boutiques, restaurants and wine bars on the Lisburn Road, are all easily accessible.

Situated in Belfast's most distinguished private tree lined residential park, this is an excellent family home and an opportunity not to be missed.
