

This substantial, mid terrace property occupies a superb situation only a few minutes walk from the thriving Lisburn Road and all its amenities with Queen's University and the City Hospital also extremely convenient.

The property offers generous well proportioned accommodation with many fine features which centre around the spacious lounge and is ideally complimented by the bedroom accommodation. This property offers an excellent investment opportunity, being close to Queens University or University of Ulster.

The property has a current HMO certificate and planning as a three bedroom property, it will be the responsibility of the new owner to re-apply if they wish to continue the let as an HMO.

Demand should be high for such a popular location.
