This is an exceptional opportunity to purchase a home set within its own beautiful and secluded woodland - an environment offering both privacy and tranquility. On arrival, visitors will enter through listed Victorian iron gates and past a recently restored listed Gate Lodge, no.40. At the end of a long lane, sheltered by mature trees, you will find no.44; a charming bungalow with multiple opportunities for prospective buyers. Presented to the market with 8.5 acres in total, the sale includes a 1.2 acre site with full planning permission (please see brochure for details).The property itself offers adaptable accommodation, with 3 bedrooms and two reception rooms, plus an additional annex; ideal for those in need of a home office or studio.

The chance to purchase such a property, bearing in mind the proximity of Belfast with its associated amenities, is extremely rare. Early viewing is recommended, allowing plenty of time to explore the impressive grounds.
